

Prayer Exercise #6 — Feb 7-13

Instructions are the same as last week.

Spend some time in the morning and evening with Father

- Feel free to pray from the structure of The Shema, The Lord's Prayer, The Amidah or any other Scripture prayer. There is no specifically assigned prayer as in previous weeks. Allow what you have learned and practiced to shape and add to your conversation with the Father.
- Include Scripture reading into this time.

Pray without ceasing

- Be constantly aware of the Spirit's presence in your life and day. Heighten your awareness by giving thanks to Father for the specific blessings He provides.
- Meditate on a Scripture verse, thought or story throughout the day.
- Pray for the needs of others when they strike your mind. This often is the Spirit making us aware and calling us to prayer. These prayers don't have to be long to be effective. Even calling out someone's name before the Lord is important. You may want to write it down and contact the person at a later time.
- When someone asks for prayer for themselves or someone else, pray for or with that person right then, if appropriate. Be careful not to embarrass or offend or take time from your job. It's perfectly OK to pray in public as long as you don't make a spectacle of it. Pull them aside and go to the Father right then and there.
- Listen for the Spirit's still, small voice and respond to His lead.

Bible Lessons:

- Complete the three Bible Lessons for this week.

Bible Lesson #10: Hindrances

Below are some Scriptures that show us things that hinder our relationship with Father. These things weaken our confidence and even cause us to draw away from God. The Lord has promised to never leave us nor forsake us. But, these hindrances will keep us from partaking in the fullness of the relationship Christ has provided. It's like a married couple who refuses to speak to each other. They are still married, but for one reason or another, they don't properly relate. God is very gracious to reveal these particular problems to us. Let's do our part to repair whatever needs to be fixed. God will always remain faithful to His covenant and His people.

Psalm 66:18-20 _____

(It doesn't say, "if I sin..." It says, "if I regard iniquity in my heart...")

James 1:5-8 _____

James 4:2-3 _____

Matthew 5:23-24 _____

Matthew 6:5 _____

1 Peter 3:7 _____

1 John 3:14-21 _____

Daniel 10:10-14 _____

(Reveals some spiritual dynamics we may face. Let's remain faithful.)

Bible Lesson #11: Access to God

As New Testament believers, we must always relate to our Father in the light of the New Covenant (a.k.a. The Gospel). The Gospel of Jesus Christ provides us direct access to our Father. We have this access and peace because of Jesus' work of redemption, not our goodness or accomplishments. Here are just a few Scriptures which shine light on our access to our Heavenly Father..

Luke 23:44-46 What does it mean for us that the veil of the Temple was torn in half when Jesus died on the cross? _____
